

The dance was choreographed on January 1st in England, during the “Harmonic Circle” seminar with Judy King and Mandy De Winter, after receiving for new year the angel of gratitude. The dance is designed to end a course where a good feeling has been created between the participants, for welcome and support the loving and grateful gaze of the various partners.